Benefit from our intercultural mentoring program

Are you coming from abroad? Are you now studying in Freiburg? Are you looking for support in your studies at the University of Freiburg?

Take part and sign up as a mentee!

The intercultural mentoring program is designed to help you with questions about your studies. Experienced students accompany and support you at the beginning of your studies on a personal, professional and social basis for one term.

We are looking for international mentees:

- beginning their studies in winter term 20/21
- looking for support on a personal, professional and social basis at the beginning of their studies
- willing to make time to meet at least 3-4 times per semester with their mentor
- wishing to share intercultural experiences with others
